Following his military service, Terry worked for the Union Pacific Railroad from 1973 to 1974 and again after his final discharge from the Army. He dedicated many years to the railroad, working as a locomotive engineer until his retirement in 2012.

Terry lived in Santaquin, Utah, for 43 years, where he built a life centered on family, faith, and community service. At the time of his passing, he was residing in Payson, Utah.
