Agenda Items:

- a) Results of the Adult Recreation Survey
Recreation Supervisor Amy Johnson went over the results of the Adult Recreation survey. Johnson sent it out to everyone in our system via email and put it on Facebook 100 people completed the survey.
When we have done this survey in the past people they are always willing to do the classes but it's all about the times and the instructors.
Board Member Josh Nielson stated that its better to have fewer programs done right than a ton of programs and not the space and time. We would rather see things done well than thrown together just to have more programs. Quality over quantity.

Everyone talked about doing a survey that is worded in a way that is purely for getting information. It was brought up that this has to be sent out in a time where its convent. After work hours and working with schedules of parents. Another great option was to have people fill out the surveys at the office while registering kids.

Board Member David Harris had an idea to have people from the Santaquin Recreation Discussion Facebook page come to a recreation board meeting and get their opinions and ideas.

- b) Recognition of Board Members who have completed their terms.
Board Members Josh Neilson and Board Member Lesley Miller have completed their one year terms. They were thanked for all the hard work and dedication they have had for the
